1 Grammar Notes

A. Introduction

A pronoun is a word that takes the place of a noun (a person, place, or thing).

Example:

- My sister is 11 years old. (noun)
- She is 11 years old. (pronoun)

There are two main types of pronouns in English. They are subject pronouns and object pronouns.

	Subject Pronouns	Object Pronouns
1st person singular	I	Me
2nd person singular	You	You
3rd person singular	He / She / it	Him / Her / It
1st person plural	We	Us
2nd person plural	You	You
3rd person plural	They	Them

B. Subject Pronouns

Subject pronouns come before a verb.
They usually begin a sentence.

- You didn't call your friend back.
- They are going to the party.
- She always tells me what to do.

C. Object Pronouns

Object pronouns come after a verb or preposition. They are usually found at the end of a sentence.

- She likes him.
- Are you coming with me?
- They invited us to the party.

Note:

In English, there is often more than one way to list objects (with no change in meaning).

- My teacher gave me a lot of homework.
- My teacher gave a lot of homework to me.
