Écrire et produire des textes  The image shows a grammar worksheet titled 'Grammar' with a red header. The main title is 'POSSESSIVE ADJECTIVES'. It explains that possessive adjectives tell who or what something belongs to, with the example: 'Timmy watches movies in Timmy's room. Timmy watches movies in his room.' Below this is a table with three columns: the form of the possessive adjective, the adjective itself, and an example sentence. The forms listed are 1st person singular, 2nd person singular, 3rd person singular (masculine), 3rd person singular (feminine), 3rd person singular (neutral), 1st person plural, 2nd person plural, and 3rd person plural. A note at the bottom states: 'NOTE: A possessive adjective does not agree with the noun that comes after it. Her costumes are perfect for the genre.'	Possessive adjectives <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Sélectionne les exercices de ton choix et réponds aux questions en lien avec les « possessive adjectives ». https://agendaweb.org/grammar/possessive-exercises.html
